

PROMISE

SUSTAINABILITY AWARDS 2023

MALDIVES

| SRI LANKA

| INDIA

Are you an enterprise from guesthouses, hotels, liveaboards / houseboats, food and beverage, restaurants or recreational centers?

Did you implement a Waste Reduction Initiative between 2021 -2022?

Are you located along the Lakshadweep shorelines in Maldives, Sri Lanka or India?

Then we look forward to having
YOU at PROMISE sustainability awards 2023!

Deadline

15
March 2023

Contact - info@projectpromise.eu

Get announced in a cross-national conference

Opportunity to join PROMISE
Project to reduce resources, save cost and to minimize waste

Local coverage of event and winners

Opportunity to participate in project events

APPLY NOW!

- Selection panel will choose the winners
- Innovation and impact will be considered
- Two categories based on size of enterprise

“PROMISE project has been an effective tool to engage and educate the public to increase recycling, creating policies and using instruments suitable on our local context to help us all to protect our environment”

-Ocean Cottage, 2022 winner from Maldives

DISCLAIMER: This pamphlet has been produced with the financial assistance of the European Union. The contents displayed on it are the sole responsibility of The Maldives National University (MNU) and can under no circumstances be regarded as reflecting the position of the European Union.

Project PROMISE, Prevention of Marine Litter in the Lakshadweep Sea, is supported by the European Union (EU) SWITCH Asia Programme to target marine litter along the Lakshadweep shorelines of the Maldives, Sri Lanka, and India.